

FORT BAKER

A Project Built On Partnership

The success of any venture begins with good partnerships. The National Park Service, Golden Gate National Parks Conservancy, and the Fort Baker Retreat Group collaborated in a unique public/nonprofit/private partnership to create and open the first national park lodge in the 21st century.

NATIONAL PARK SERVICE

The National Park Service (NPS) is a federal agency within the U.S. Department of the Interior charged with managing the preservation and public use of America's most significant natural, scenic, historic, and cultural treasures. Established in 1916, the NPS manages 391 sites across the United States—including the Golden Gate National Parks.
